Examination and Testing Fees

An additional charge is made for external (public) examinations and tests such as IGCSE and IB Diploma Examinations, and external standardised tests (such as the CAT4 cognitive assessment). This charge includes both the fee charged by the examination board or testing agency, and the handling and costs of the secure courier service used to send the examination scripts.

Additional EAL or SEN tuition

BCA's English as an Additional Language (EAL) support and Special Educational Needs (SEN) provision is sufficient to provide most students with good access to the curriculum. Where a student's needs are greater, and cannot be met by the usual provision, BCA may make a charge for additional tuition. The fee and arrangements will be discussed and agreed upon during the admissions process or, for continuing students, during the re-enrolment process. The BCA Admissions Policy will be followed.

School Bus /Optional

The School offers a transport service for those who request it.
